WE particularly desire to bring to your notice that at our old-world premises, at No. 34 THE HAYMARKET, which are unique in this modern London of ours, we hold an exceptionally fine selection of Havana Cigars in Cabinets and Boxes.

Our Cabinet Cigars have for many years been highly esteemed by connoisseurs.

They are manufactured especially for us, from the finest leaf only, by Cuba's most skilful makers, and our unrivalled knowledge, based on over a century's trading, enables us to offer our clientele just that Cigar which is not only fully matured, but ready for immediate smoking.

We should much prefer that you visit us personally, but should this not be possible, we shall be pleased at all times to submit a range of samples for your inspection if you will be good enough to give us some idea of the type of Cigar you prefer.

PREFACE.

I REGRET the delay in issuing this edition, but it has been caused by the fact that we were expecting to give particulars of the granting of the long-wished-for Insignia by His Gracious Majesty the King.

Although it has been a work of considerable labour, it has also given me a great deal of pleasure to compile this Knightage. The information presented herein has been collected from Official Sources and from facts supplied by members themselves.

I think it is the only publication which gives the Christian name used with the Prefix, and from the numerous enquiries we receive from Public Officials on this particular point this feature alone justifies the addition of one more to the already long list of similar works of reference.

I hope the issue will be of use to the Public generally, and that in time to come the series will be of interest and value, not only to the Biographer but also to those concerned in genealogical research of all kinds.

Mr. A. T. Butler, Portcullis, Mr. Brian Browne, Clerk to the Society, and Mr. Richard Hope, B.A., have greatly assisted me in seeing this book through the press.

THE IMPERIAL SOCIETY OF KNIGHTS BACHELOR.

ORIGIN.

Early in 1908 an informal meeting of Knights Bachelor was held in the House of Commons, primarily with the object of taking into consideration, with a view of contesting, the action of the Walker Trustees of Edinburgh, as holders of the office of Usher of the White Rod, in demanding the payment of fees to them by the recipients of honours.

The present Principal (Sir William Bull, M.P.), who was known to have made a study of Heraldry, was asked to act as a convenor of a formal meeting, and invitations were sent out, with the result that the Society was duly formed and a council and officers elected, and now there are nearly 1,000 names inscribed on the Society's Roll, representing the majority of the existing recipients of the honour.

OBJECTS.

The objects of the Society, which was formally constituted on April 27th, 1908, enjoying the approval of the Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood, St. James's Palace, and the co-operation of the College of Arms, are to provide a permanent Habitation in London, to continue the Registers, dating from the twelfth century, uphold the status, maintain the rights of precedence, and generally to protect the interests of the Degree.

The Home Secretary (Viscount Gladstone) was further pleased to give his official recognition to the Society, and, in conformity with, and in pursuance of, such recognition, the Home Office now sends an official notification of the creation of all Knights Bachelor, from which the Society's Register is compiled.

ROYAL RECOGNITION.

In recognition of the Society's aims and objects His Majesty King George was graciously pleased in March, 1912, to command that henceforth the Society should be known as "THE IMPERIAL SOCIETY OF KNIGHTS BACHELOR," which mark of distinction was a source of much gratification to the members, spread as they are over every part of the Empire.

PROCEDURE.

In the year 1902 a radical change was made in the procedure connected with promotions of honour. The Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood (which was instituted by His Majesty King Edward VII. in that year) now controls all procedure connected with such promotion and ceremonial, with certain exceptions. One of these exceptions concerns Knights Bachelor and some matters in connection with them, which remain the province of the Home Office, though no current list is published by the Department.

REPRESENTATION.

Prior to the formation of the Society there was no one to speak on behalf of the Degree, and as no member could protest individually, several classes in the State have, by various patents and ordinances, been assigned precedence over Knights Bachelor, and though they are the most ancient Order of Knights, their rights have been progressively infringed.

MISUSE OF PREFIX.

In the same way there was no machinery to prevent the unwarrantable assumption of the prefix "Sir" by individuals having no right to that honour, the Order, in consequence, frequently suffering in dignity. Knights Bachelor may rest assured that the Council will give prompt attention to any such cases that may arise in the future; and an individual representing himself to be a Knight, and obtaining credit thereby, was, at the Warwick Assizes, on the 5th January, 1910, sentenced to imprisonment.

ROLL OF KNIGHTS BACHELOR.

To many it will doubtless be a surprise to learn that during the period between the 18th December, 1902, and the formation of the Society, there was no official roll or record of Knights Bachelor, and it was the first work of the Society to supply this omission which has now been accomplished.

In the Middle Ages individual Heralds made occasional notes of the dubbings of Knights; but such notes are known and admitted to be most incomplete. In the seventeenth century a Register of Knighthood was instituted by King James I. This Register is preserved at the College of Arms, and extends down to the year 1902; but it is not, and does not claim to be, a complete record of all the Knights dubbed within this period. A skilled Genealogist, Mr. Charles Bernau, has been engaged for some years in supplying us with particulars of ancient Knights.

There was a strong feeling among Knights Bachelor that a properly authenticated and officially recognised Roll of Knights should be brought into existence and continuously kept up to date; this duty of establishing a permanent record the Society immediately took in hand, with the result that a Roll of Knights is now kept up by Garter King of Arms as a continuation of the earlier Register mentioned above.

PROCEDURE IN CONNECTION WITH GARTER'S ROLL.

Immediately upon nomination the name of every Knight Bachelor is recorded on the Vellum Roll, together with the date. Garter then communicates with the Knight and arranges for him to call at the College of Arms and sign the Roll, no expense to the Knight being involved.

CERTIFICATE.

The Society is now prepared on application to issue to Members a Certificate stating that the honour claimed by such member has been duly authenticated. This Certificate will be of use for furnishing to companies, &c., and members thus saved the expense and trouble of a production of the "Gazette" for legal purposes. The fee for this Certificate is half-a-guinea.

"Whose Service."

From time to time the Council has considered a Motto for the Society. I am not sure whether the Rev. C. A. Allington, D.D., the head master of Eton, has not found one for us; I culled the following from a recent informative article of his:—

"The knight claims a more honourable derivation inasmuch as to be a true servant or knecht is a real title to nobility. The idea survives in the Prince of Wales's motto (I serve) and finds glorious expression in the Prayer Book. Its great phrase, 'whose service is perfect freedom,' is a free translation from the Latin, which literally means to serve whom is to be a King (cui servire est regnare); but the genius of the translator told him that the true-born Englishman thought it a higher honour to be perfectly free than to be a King by an accident of descent."

"Whose Service" has some of the attributes of a perfect Motto—it is English, crisp, intriguing and elusive. I shall be glad to hear from the Members of the Society what they think of this.

INSIGNIA.

MEMORANDUM ON THE INSIGNIA.

By Sir HARRY COURTHOPE-MUNROE, K.C., Standing Counsel to the Society.

THE INSIGNIA.

1. On the 23rd April, 1926, the following announcement appeared in the "London Gazette" of that date :—

Whitehall, April 23, 1926.

The KING has been pleased to issue a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect :—

GEORGE R.I.

GEORGE THE FIFTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

T: Our Right Trusty and Well-beloved Cousin and Counsellor Edmund Bernard Viscount FitzAlan of Derwent, Knight of Our Most Noble Order of the Garter, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order, Companion of the Distinguished Service Order, Deputy to Our Right Trusty and Right Entirely-beloved Cousin Bernard Marmaduke, Duke of Norfolk, Earl Marshal and Our Hereditary Marshal of England, Greeting !

Whereas We having taken into Our Royal Consideration certain circumstances humbly represented unto Us and being desirous of enhancing the state and dignity of the ancient and honourable degree of knight bachelor, have thought fit to grant and prescribe a Badge which may be worn by those of Our loving subjects who have from time to time been advanced to the separate and singular degree of knight bachelor or may hereafter be so advanced :

Now Know Ye that We of Our Princely Grace, Special Favour and Mere Motion have for Ourselves, Our Heirs and Successors given and granted and do by these Presents give and grant unto all such persons as aforesaid Our Royal Licence and Authority that they may henceforth upon all appropriate occasions wear upon the left side of the coat or outer garment a Badge measuring approximately three inches in length and two inches in width, as hereinafter described, and as shown in the painting hereunto annexed, that is to say "Upon an oval medallion of vermilion, enclosed by a scroll, a cross-hilted sword belted and sheathed, pommel upwards, between two spurs, rowels upwards, the whole set about with the sword-belt, all gilt"

Our Will and Pleasure therefore is that ⁶you, Edmund Bernard Viscount FitzAlan of Derwent, Deputy to Our said Earl Marshal, to whom the cognizance of matters of this nature doth properly belong, do require and command that this Our grant and prescription be recorded in Our College of Arms to the end that Our Officers of Arms and all others upon occasion may take full notice and have knowledge thereof :

And for so doing this shall be your Warrant.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the twenty-first day of April, 1926, in the sixteenth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

W. Joynson-Hicks.

2. It will doubtless be of interest to the members of the Imperial Society of Knights Bachelor to know something of the proceedings which at the instance of the Council have brought to so successful a conclusion the claim of Knights Bachelor over a long period of years to have granted to them an Insignia in keeping with the customs and apparel of the present century.

3. On the occasion of the last annual dinner of the Society of the 24th June, 1925, under the Presidency of the Knight Principal, the ancient right of a Knight Bachelor to wear as an Insignia a Collar of SS came under discussion and Sir William Bull then stated that notwithstanding the failure of previous efforts he still intended to go forward with the matter and press for recognition of the right but in a form more adapted and suitable to modern dress and requirements.

4. Subsequently further application in the matter was accordingly made by him to the Home Secretary, the Right Hon. Sir Wm. Joynson-Hicks, Bart., and the grounds of the application duly formulated and submitted to the Home Secretary for his consideration.

5. On the 14th October, 1925, the Home Secretary issued a warrant of appointment in the following terms :—

COMMITTEE OF INSIGNIA FOR KNIGHTS BACHELOR.

WARRANT OF APPOINTMENT.

I HEREBY APPOINT

The Right Hon. Sir Frederick Ponsonby, G.C.V.O., K.C.B.,
Colonel R. A. Johnson, C.B.E.,
Mr. A. J. Eagleston, C.V.O.,
and
Mr. H. R. Boyd, C.V.O., C.B.E.,

to be a Committee to consider the form and design of the Insignia to be prescribed by The King for gentlemen of the Degree of Knight Bachelor and to report upon the subject indicating the regulations which, in their opinion, His Majesty should be advised to make in respect of the wearing of such Insignia.

AND I FURTHER APPOINT Sir Frederick Ponsonby to be Chairman of the Committee and Mr. R. S. Wells, of the Home Office, to be Secretary.

(Signed) W. JOYNSON-HICKS.

Whitehall,

14th October, 1925.

6. The Committee sat at the Home Office, Whitehall, on the 12th November, 1925, and Sir William Bull and Sir Harry Courthope-Munroe, K.C., the Hon. Standing Counsel of the Society, having been deputed by the Council to attend on its behalf, attended before the Committee and submitted the views of the Society in relation to the form and design of the proposed Insignia.

7. Sir William Bull stated to the Committee that from knowledge that he had acquired he was now satisfied that Knights Bachelor were entitled to wear a collar of SS, but that he fully recognised that that was not suited to present-day costume and that the members of the Society which represented the majority of the Knights Bachelor were therefore desirous of having a Badge to be worn on their breasts, and that they felt that as they belonged to the oldest degree of Chivalry in the world their claim to have such a badge was a strong one, particularly in view of the fact that the absence of a Badge in the Insignia worn by members of the various Orders of Knighthood now in existence other than Knights of the degree was itself indicative that the wearer was not a full knight. Sir William Bull also suggested to the Committee that the gilded spurs, were as was recognised by the Six Heralds in their report to the Earl of Holland in 1627, one of the most important emblems upon which to found the Insignia. He produced three or four sketches illustrating his ideas.

8. Sir Harry Courthope-Munroe, K.C., drew the attention of the Committee to three documents recorded in 1st L. 2.23 in Heralds Office 1784. The three documents referred to are as follows :—

- (i) a letter dated 29th of June, 1627, from the Earl of Hollande to the Officers of Arms touching the Ribbons for Knights which states (inter alia) as under : "there hath bene a proposition made unto me to move his Matie to declare his Royall pleasure by Proclamation that all Baronetts & Knights Batchelors should weare severall Orders in Ribbons of severall Coulors to distinguish one Order from another and both from psons of inferior Qualitie in such sorte as Knights of the Bath by his Matie's Commandment at this Tyme Do."

- (ii) the Answer or Certificate dated 16th of July, 1627, of the then Officers of Arms, to wit—

Ri. St. George Clarenceux	Hen St. George, Richmond
Jo. Burough Norroy	Hen Chitting, Chester
Wm. Penson, Lancaster	Jo. Philipot, Somersett.

- (iii) A subsequent letter (undated) from the then Attorney-General, Sir Robert Heath, to the King of Arms calling for such Certificate and notifying the fact that he had received a commandment from the King (Charles I) concerning that business and that he should have use of that Certificate for His Majesties service.

9. Sir Harry further suggested for the consideration of the Committee that the statement in the Answer under the hands of the six Officers of Arms in 1627, "So likewise were Knights (now called Batchellors) auncently knowne by their Belts their Collars of SS of Gold, their gilded Spurs and Swords," would appear to put beyond question the fact that the ancient Insignia of a Knight Bachelor were

His Belt
His Collar of SS of gold
His gilded spurs
and

and that these emblems would therefore appear to afford the best ground-work upon which to base the form of the Insignia under consideration.

10. The Committee having in due course made their report to the Home Secretary, he approved of their report and advice and, after the approval of his Majesty had been given, Mr. George Kruger Gray, who made the design for the last South African coinage, was entrusted with the work of carrying into effect the recommendations of the Committee as regards the form and design of the Badge, which it will be seen embodies

A Sword	}	all gilt,
Two spurs
and

all of which form part of the ancient emblems of Knighthood and for the inclusion of which in the proposed Insignia the Society respectfully contended.

11. On the 21st April, 1926, the King was pleased to issue a warrant under His Majesty's Sign Manual to the effect set out in the issue of the "London Gazette" of the 23rd April, 1926, above referred to.

H. COURTHOPE-MUNROE.

The carrying out of the design and the stamping of the Insignia was carried out by His Majesty's Mint under the personal supervision of Col. R. A. Johnson, C.B.E., the Deputy Master, to whom our thanks are due for the general interest he took in the work.

NOTES ON THE BADGE BY THE PRINCIPAL.

You will observe that the pin at the back is not a pin in the ordinary sense, but a fastening, and you will either have to have holes or loops made in your coat or uniform, or in a piece of cloth of the proper colour which can be attached to your coat. I mention this in case you thought the fastening had to be stabbed through your coat. Being in the nature of a star there is no miniature, collar or pendant attached to the Insignia; like Decorations, the Insignia is worn on all occasions.

In answer to many inquiries as to the position, I always say it should be worn as nearly as possible over the heart.

Inserted as a matter of interest is a photograph of the original warrant, and a copy of the badge which appeared in the Hunting number of the "Field Magazine," and are kindly lent us by our brother Knight, Sir Theodore Cook, who has helped us in many ways.

Up to the end of 1926, 833 Badges have been applied for and despatched to members in all parts of the world.

Since the issue of the last Knightage, the Council has to mourn the deaths of several prominent members of the body:—Sir Squire Bancroft, Sir Melville Beachcroft, Sir Ernest Flower, Sir Rider Haggard and Sir Isidore Spielmann.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL.

The following have been elected:—Sir Douglas Hogg, H.M. Attorney-General, representing the Law; Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch representing Literature; Sir Vincent Caillard, representing the Greater Industries; Sir Gerald Du Maurier, representing Drama, and Sir Harry Courthope-Munroe has been elected to the Council as a slight recognition of his eminent services with regard to the granting of the Insignia.

HERALDRY.

During the past few years several Members of the Order have availed themselves of the services of the Principal for advice on Heraldic questions. Perhaps it is not surprising to find that men who have been actively employed in other spheres of usefulness are ignorant of the position with regard to Crest and Coat Armour.

As a matter of fact, very few persons are armigerous in the strict sense of the word. That is to say, that the Coats of Arms they use have been properly registered, or brought up to date at the College of Arms. Some men use the Crest or Coat which has descended to them from their fathers or grandfathers, but which really they have no right to use. There is no such thing as a "prescriptive right to arms." Others have in many cases quite innocently taken the Arms of families of the same name perhaps on the advice of a "heraldic stationer."

Many persons who desire to found a family and who wish to have a Coat of Arms legalized have come to the Principal, and he has had the pleasure of acting as intermediary with the College of Arms in having matters put right or petitioning for a new Coat of Arms of a dignified and heraldic character.

The services of the Principal are, of course, entirely honorary, but he is only too pleased to give information as to the fees payable and other details.

The Council are gratified that this Branch of our activities is increasing, and it is hoped that other Members of the Order, if they so desire, will avail themselves of the services of the Principal.

REGISTRY AND LIBRARY.

At the Registry accommodation has been provided so that members visiting London may transact temporary business, dictate their correspondence, and arrange for interviews, &c. Letters addressed to members, at The Imperial Society of Knights Bachelor, 21, Old Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, London, W.C.2, England, will be retained in the Registry or re-directed in accordance with instructions given.

A number of works of reference are available in the Library for the use of members, and information will be gladly given on questions of heraldry, grants of arms and genealogy. All Knights are invited to contribute, by loan or donation, copies of their published works, memorials, pictures or other objects of general interest to their Degree, and the nucleus of a valuable collection has already been formed, thanks to the generosity of certain members.

SUBSCRIPTION.

The subscription to the Society was fixed at £1 1s. a year. A payment of £10 10s. in one amount confers life membership, after which there is no further liability. On the admission of a member to the Society an authentic record of his name and description is entered in the Roll, and the honour conferred upon him in due course is registered on Garter's Roll of Knights Bachelor. Each member is entitled to a copy of the Society's Certificate containing a record of his creation, &c., and also the annual "Knightage," giving dates of precedence, new creations, &c.

ENROLMENT.

The Insignia has now been attained, but the Council have other schemes for maintaining and consolidating the position of the Knights Bachelor, but these can only be carried out if the Society receives the support of the great majority of those on whom the honour of Knighthood has been conferred, and the Council therefore trust that they may see a further number of the Knights who are not yet members of the Society entered on the Roll of Membership in the near future.

There were present as Guests :—Colonel R. A. Johnson, C.B.E., Deputy Master and Comptroller of the Mint ; Mr. G. Woods Woollaston, Richmond Herald and Captain A. T. Butler, Portcullis Pursuivant of the College of Arms ; Mr. A. J. Eagleston, Mr. H. H. Boyd and Mr. R. S. Wells, of the Home Office ; Mr. Stephen Bull, Mr. Richard Hope and Mr. Gordon Richards ; and Mr. Brian L. Brown (Clerk). THE KNIGHT PRINCIPAL : Before I call, according to custom, upon the Senior Knight, I desire to inform you that I propose with your permission sending on your behalf the following telegram to His Majesty the King :—

“ The Knights Bachelor of the Empire assembled to-night from all parts of the world, respectfully send to your Majesty their humble greeting, with an assurance of their loyalty to your Throne and Person, and their grateful thanks for the Insignia which Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant.” (Cheers.)

I now call upon Sir George Chubb, the Senior Knight present, to propose the loyal toast.

“ THE KING.”

SIR GEORGE CHUBB : Sir William Bull and Fellow Knights,—I esteem it a great honour to be called upon as the Senior Knight present to propose the toast of “ The King.” It is a great privilege to me to do so. I ask you to most loyally honour the toast of H.M. The King.

The toast was loyally honoured, the National Anthem being sung.

APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE.

THE KNIGHT PRINCIPAL : I will ask the Clerk to read a few telegrams of apology that have been received.

THE CLERK (Mr. Brian L. Browne) : The following telegrams have been received :—

From Sir Harry Samuel at Monte Carlo : “ In unavoidable absence, send very sincere congratulations on grand success after 18 years’ work to our Knight Principal Sir William Bull and to my Brother Knights on enjoyment of his efforts.

From Sir William Plender : “ I deeply regret that it is impossible for me to be at the Dinner to-night, as I would so much have liked to have shared in the tribute to Sir William Bull for his estimable services during the past years.”

From Sir Ernest Roney : “ Much regret unable to attend Dinner to-night.”

‘THE SOCIETY.’

SIR PHILIP MAGNUS, in proposing the toast of “The Society,” said: Brother Knights, I have been charged with the responsible, but at the same time pleasurable, duty of proposing what is understood as the toast of the evening, that of the success of our Society. The only reason I can assign for having been selected among this distinguished company to propose this toast is the fact that I am one of the oldest Knights Bachelor in service, if not in age, of those present this evening, having received the Accolade from Queen Victoria at Windsor Castle just over 40 years ago. (Cheers.)

THE GRANTING OF THE INSIGNIA.

The function that we meet here this evening to celebrate is certainly one that will find a place in the history of Knighthood—a history as to which I should say the greatest obscurity prevails. We meet to record the fact that the disability under which Knights Bachelor have laboured now for some centuries, namely, the absence of any visible mark of the honour conferred upon us by our Sovereign, has been removed by the gracious act of H.M. King George in the grant of the new Insignia as worn by our Brother Knights now seated at these tables. That fact, I do not hesitate to say, opens a new chapter in the history of Chivalry.

THE STORY OF THE SOCIETY.

As most of those present are aware, it was only as recently as March or April of 1908 when, by the active influence of our Knight Principal, Sir William Bull—(cheers)—a Society was for the first time formed, “to provide a permanent habitation for the Order in London, to continue the Register, dating from the twelfth century, and generally to protect the interests of the Degree.” In recognition of the Society’s aims and objects, as clearly stated by the officers of the Society, H.M. King George was graciously pleased to direct that the Society so formed should be known as “The Imperial Society of Knights Bachelor,” and already some 1,700 members of that Order exist, of whom I think 800 have joined the Society. Such, briefly, is the history of the Society till now.

UNIQUE CHARACTER OF THE DEGREE.

We K.Bs., if for brevity I may so address you, are proud to remember that Knighthood is the oldest dignity known in Chivalry, and that the special personal ceremony, by which the Sovereign confers that dignity, is found in no other Order of Chivalry in any part of the world, and that makes the honour which we have received unique. What may have been the Insignia worn by the Knights who foregathered at King Arthur’s Round Table I have been unable to discover. I have searched many books on the subject, but have found no information to help me.

THE OLD INSIGNIA.

We read, however, that in more recent times, but still very distant ages, Knights Bachelor were well known by their Collar of S S (a collar such as we shall presently ask our Knight Principal to accept), and more especially by their swords and gilded spurs. It would seem, however, that by some very doubtful interpretation of Acts of Parliament passed in the reigns of Henry VIII and James I—which Acts, not being a lawyer, I fail to understand (laughter)—Knights Bachelor were supposed to have ceased to be entitled to wear the old Insignia. Be that as it may, it is a fact that from the year 1627 till now they have had no visible token of the dignity that had been conferred upon them, and, even now, the Collar forms no part of the new Insignia. Personally, although I know there are very many good reasons why that should be so, I cannot help saying that I regret it, seeing that the Accolade, the ceremony still observed in conferring Knighthood, distinguishing Knights Bachelor from all other Knights, is as a word clearly associated with the word “collar” or “neck.”

SUCCESSFUL EFFORTS.

From what I have so far said you will be better able to realise and appreciate the fact that it is largely owing to the long-sustained efforts of our Knight Principal, for whose advent we have patiently waited for nearly 300 years—(laughter and cheers)—that we are now able to wear the distinctive badge which will be recognised throughout the entire British Empire, as indicating that we have rendered some service to the State, for which it has pleased the Sovereign to confer upon us the honour of Knighthood. Indeed, it was Sir William Bull who, after interviewing and corresponding with a number of more or less sympathetic Home Secretaries, succeeded at last in inducing Sir William Joynson-Hicks, our present Home Secretary, to advise H.M. King George to grant to us Knights Bachelor the Insignia now worn by all members of our Order. (Cheers.)

CHIVALRY.

It would appear, Brother Knights, that Chivalry, the history of which dates from the twelfth century, was at first an institution so highly aristocratic that no one could receive a Knighthood who was not of gentle birth, and was, as the word Chivalry indicates, closely linked with military service, and so it is that the sword and spur and belt are pictured on our badge. Indeed, I have read that in days of old those only were eligible for the honour of Knighthood who had received some preliminary education in schools appointed by the Nobles, or held in their own Baronial castles. That they were expected to have received some preliminary training which might qualify them efficiently to discharge their duties is a point that might be brought under the notice of our present and future Ministers of Education.

WHAT THE INSIGNIA SIGNIFIES.

But, Brother Knights, as we all know, "The old order changeth giving place to new"; and whether in the time to come, as has been predicted, wars such as those of old will no more be waged I cannot say, but I think we may still assume that the sword of Knighthood, and the other insignia of our Badge, will continue to have some meaning. The sword, certainly, will no longer represent an instrument for destroying life, but rather a potent implement of Science for preserving life, and the Badge of Knighthood will continue to be given, among others, to those who successfully do battle with the germs of sickness and disease, and no less generally to those who, disdaining the so-called "bliss" of ignorance, remove all stumbling-blocks from the well-worn paths of progress, and clear the way for the march of newer knowledge and wider wisdom. (Cheers.) And so, too, the gilded spur will serve to remind those worthy but maybe dilatory Knights, when they shall have exchanged their horses for motors, to "prick the sides of their intents in hastening the completion of some good and holy work." (Laughter and cheers.) As regards the Belt now figuring on the Badge as a necessary adjunct to the Sword, I can only regard it under the new Order as an instrument of chastisement to be restricted in its use to speeches in Parliament or letters to the Press, reproving, more or less gently, those who fail in their duty to the State or in loyalty to their gracious King. (Laughter.)

GOOD DEEDS.

It is said on very good authority that in no other Order of Chivalry can be found the names of men of such versatility of talent or of such distinction of achievements as in the Order to which we belong. Certainly that increases the value of the dignity that we have received. We must, however, remember that although the times of Knight Errantry have passed, the call of Chivalry is still heard, and there is ample opportunity in these days of somewhat relaxed authority and easy discipline, to renew and to live up to the standard set by Knights of Old when King Arthur reigned in Britain.

THE TOAST.

The toast that I have been asked to propose is "Success to Our Society," and I believe that success will be found in the addition of new members who will seek admission to our Society, of members who by their achievements and good works will add further lustre to our Order, "A glorious company to serve as a model for the mighty world." (Cheers.)

Brother Knights, I have much pleasure in giving you the toast of "Success to our Society of Knights Bachelor," and I couple that toast with the name of the Knight Principal, Sir William Bull. (Cheers.)

The toast was enthusiastically honoured, "For he's a jolly good fellow" being very heartily sung.

To face page :

A PORTION OF THE COLLAR OF S S PRESENTED TO THE KNIGHT PRINCE
SIR WILLIAM BULL. DECEMBER 2ND, 1926.

THE PRESENTATION.

SIR PHILIP MAGNUS : I have now the pleasure of asking you, Sir, our Knight Principal, to accept as a gift from a number of your Brother Knights the old emblem of our Order, the S S Collar. Although the number of the Brother Knights who have subscribed to this gift is comparatively small, nearly every one present, and probably every Knight in the country, would have desired to subscribe to it. (Cheers.) Any funds that may be left over after purchasing this gift will be used for charitable purposes in connection with the Benevolent Fund of the Society. This Collar is distinguished from all other Collars by the letters S S.

S S.

I do not think any one knows what those letters indicate ; certainly I do not. Many suggestions have been made. But those who know you intimately, as I do, having been associated with you for nearly 17 years as a colleague in the House of Commons, will have no hesitation in reading into those two letters the words "Sense" and "Service"—the high sense of duty and other meanings so familiar to us all, and the Service, ever willing service, in some good cause. In you, too, we recognise many of those sterling qualities of the Knights of old, of those "who revered their conscience as their King," for, as a politician, you have well proved your service to the State, and as a lawyer you have applied your great learning and ability to the "redressing of human wrongs" and to other good and useful causes. We ask your acceptance of this Collar, knowing you will value it for all it signifies, and will bequeath it to your descendants as a rich legacy, a recognition, small as it may be, from your Brother Knights of the great service you have rendered to our Degree and of our sincere and loyal friendship.

INSCRIPTION.

The Collar bears the inscription: "Presented to the Right Honourable Sir William Bull, Knight and Baronet, Maltravers Herald Extraordinary, by his Brother Knights of the I.S.K.B., as a slight recognition of his services with regard to the granting of the Insignia. 2nd December, 1926." (Loud cheers.)

THE KNIGHT PRINCIPAL : Dear old Sir Philip, and Brother Knights,—I greet you all and give you a hearty welcome here to-night.

DOMESTIC.

This is entirely a domestic gathering. While most of us are engaged in Knight Errantry in various parts of the world for the good of the Empire, to-night is given up to talking about ourselves and our Society. The speeches after the Dinner are deliberately made as short as possible, because most of us are in the tea-time of life, and like to catch our trains and go home early. Therefore we are not going to have many speeches to-night, and personally I do not propose for one moment to inflict a long speech upon you.

THANKS.

I should like, in the first place, to thank Sir Philip, and all those kind friends of mine who have subscribed to the very handsome gift which you have just given me. It is a very pleasing gift because it is an absolute extravagance. (I always hold that the best kind of present is something that one would very much like to possess, but is not likely to buy for oneself.) This is an article which I should never have thought of buying for myself. My dear little frugal wife would have held up her hands in horror if I had dared to purchase anything of the sort. Therefore it is all the more pleasant to me that the gift takes this form, because I value it very much. This beautiful example of the silversmith's art is an exact replica of the ancient Insignia of Knights, and as far as Sir Harry Courthope-Munroe, our standing Counsel, and I have been able to ascertain, we have never really abandoned the use of it, and anybody who likes to wear it can still do so; but before you decide to get one I will now ask the Vice-Principal, Sir Trevor Dawson, to put it on me in order to show you what it looks like. (The Vice-Principal, Sir Trevor Dawson, then invested the Knight Principal with the S S chain amid hearty cheering.)

THE COLLAR OF S S AND MODERN COSTUME.

You see, Brother Knights, it is not the sort of thing that one can appropriately wear with modern evening dress. In the days when the Collar was really used it must be borne in mind most people wore special gowns of one kind and another, and a Collar of this sort looks very handsome on a Mayoral or University gown, or on a uniform of certain kinds, certainly on a mediæval dress, but it would hardly do for evening dress at the present time. It gives one an impression of appearing in another domestic capacity which I will not name, but which will be apparent to you all. (Laughter.) This being apparent to the Council we decided to ask for a modern Insignia which would go with evening dress, and we abandoned the idea of trying to insist, or of asking, that this Collar should be recognised as the badge of the Degree for all occasions. But, as most of you are aware, Brother Knights, I happen to be—and I am very proud of the position—one of the Heralds of the College of Arms, viz., Maltravers Herald Extraordinary (not Extraordinary but extra Ordinary, i.e., in addition to the Ordinary Heralds), and therefore I can wear this Collar over my tabard on certain occasions. At one time all Heralds, and all others wearing the Collar, used, when they ceased to hold office, to carry away the Collar as a perquisite—(laughter); but owing to economies which have existed for some years now, most of the officials have to return their Collars into the King's Wardrobe when they cease to hold office. I felt I should like to have a Collar permanently, and therefore, when certain friends came to me and asked me what I would like as a present, I said I would like a Collar of S S for my very own. I am entitled to wear it as a Knight, and certainly I am entitled to wear it as Maltravers Herald, and consequently you have afforded me a great amount of pleasure in making me this presentation with its delightful inscription, so that I shall be able to wear this Collar on certain special occasions. I am very grateful indeed to you all for the gift, and I thank you very much indeed for the kind thoughts which prompted you to give it to me.

ACTIVITIES OF THE COUNCIL.

I will now deal very briefly with a few facts concerning the Society. To those who have not attended our annual gatherings before, I think I ought to say that it is the custom of the Chairman to give an account of the doings of the Council since we last met, not only for the benefit of those present, but because it is a convenient way of explaining our activities to the whole Degree, as a verbatim report of the speeches at the Dinner is usually included in the next Knightage.

OBITUARY.

I cannot continue, however, without saying how much we deplore the death of five members of the Council. I refer to Sir Melville Beechcroft, an accomplished lawyer who gave of his best to London, and was the Chairman and a member for many years of the London County Council. Then there is Sir Rider Haggard, a dear friend of my own, who was essentially an Empire builder, and whose writings have done so much to inspire patriotism. Sir Squire Bancroft, the veteran actor, who always enjoyed attending our Council Meetings and whose friendship we valued very much, has also gone from amongst us. My dear old friend and colleague for many years in the House of Commons, one of the founders of the Society, our old friend Sir Ernest Flower. Finally, there is Sir Isidore Spielmann, that great critic and lover of art, who did so much for British art and art generally throughout the world, who has also passed away.

THE NEW MEMBERS OF COUNCIL.

We have elected in their places Sir Douglas Hogg, the Attorney-General, who is the head of the Bar and represents Law ; Sir Gerald du Maurier, who represents the Drama ; Sir Arthur Quiller-Couch, who has taken Sir Rider Haggard's place as representing Literature ; Sir Harry Courthope-Munroe, our standing Counsel, who did so much for us in getting the Insignia, and who gave evidence and who spent an enormous amount of time and research in putting our case properly before the Committee, and to whom we are very grateful indeed for his valuable assistance ; and finally, we have elected Sir Vincent Cailliard, who represents Finance and great Industries—all good men and true whom we welcome to our Council.

INSIGNIA.

I will not say much about the Insignia. After 18 years' effort the Council have accomplished what they set out to do. Nine Home Secretaries turned us down, and it is due to Sir William Joynson-Hicks, our present Home Secretary, that we are wearing these Badges to-night. It was he who had the foresight and vision to recommend His Majesty to grant our request.

THE KNIGHTAGE.

A full account of how it was accomplished will appear in the 1927 edition of the Knightage. I am sorry the Knightage did not appear last year, but we were waiting week after week and month after month in order to be able to announce in the Knightage the fact that the Badge had been conferred upon us. I put it off from time to time in the hope that we should be able to announce it. Time went on, and as a result no Knightage was issued for 1925 or 1926.

You must forgive the omission, and I hope the new Knightage will be out very shortly.

A PROPOSAL TO WIND UP.

After the granting of the Insignia, the Council discussed a suggestion to wind up the Society. It was thought that we had accomplished all that we intended to do, and that it would be a good thing to close down. (Loud cries of "No.") Everybody on the Council was against it. (Cheers.) There are still certain things we have to do. We have to protect our Degree and Order from various attacks which are made upon us from time to time, and there are other things we have in mind. Therefore the suggestion was unanimously turned down and we propose to continue the Society. (Cheers.) The proposal to discontinue was also rejected on the ground that it would not be fair to the Life Members. A great many Knights have paid a life subscription; they commuted the annual guinea by paying a certain sum down, and it would be hard upon them, especially those who had recently paid a lump sum down, to wind the Society up. (Laughter and cheers.)

THE COLLEGE OF ARMS.

With regard to our habitation, thanks to the kindness of Garter King of Arms, Sir Henry Farnham Burke, the College of Arms have housed us for the last few years. That has been of inestimable service to us; it has given us prestige to be connected with "that ancient loyal and charitable house." Not only so, but we live there rent free, rates free, tax free, lighting free, coal free, and also, to a large extent, service free, for all of the officers have from time to time kindly assisted us with their advice, and put their heraldic knowledge at our service. The College of Arms now find, however, that they need the rooms we use, and so at Christmas we have to find a new home.

NEW OFFICES.

But I am happy to tell you that I have succeeded in persuading the Benchers of Lincoln's Inn to give us a charming little suite of rooms on the first floor in the western corner turret of Old Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, at a moderate rent. It is, perhaps, as well to remind you that this rent, however moderate, is a serious addition to our expenses, and when you consider that we are only a Guinea-a-year Society you will realise that we have to use our money with niggardly care. The exact address at the moment is 21, Old Buildings, and I hope you will all come and see us after Christmas. The rooms are quite close to my own offices, so that I can run in and out of them from day to day and see how things are getting on.

A CHAPEL IN ST. PAUL'S.

There is another point which I might mention that will be of interest to you. Before the war, some of you may remember, we approached the Dean of St. Paul's with a view to having a Chapel of our own in the Cathedral, similar to that of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. This was under favourable consideration when the war broke out and it had to be postponed. I recently approached the present Dean, who said there was no Chapel left, and, even if there were, it would be many years before we could use it owing to the repairs St. Paul's was now undergoing. He offered to grant us an annual service, but we felt that that would not meet the case. All of us would, I feel sure, be glad to have a home in the great Cathedral of the Empire, but a service is rather a different matter. We have always had a Chapel of our own at St. Dunstan's-in-the-West. That is one of the 13 threatened Churches that we have recently had so much discussion about in the House of Commons. If the Council of the Society and the members desire that we should continue in that Chapel, we certainly have a spiritual home there for those who care to avail themselves of it.

THANKS TO STAFF.

Finally, I should like to thank our new Clerk (Mr. Brian Browne), Mr. Richard Hope and Mr. Gordon Richards for the help they have given in arranging this Banquet and making it the success it is.

DELAY.

I want in conclusion to say just one word more about the Insignia. I am sorry there was some delay with regard to the delivery of the Insignia, but unexpected difficulties arose at the Mint, and we were not able to get all our Badges delivered by 1st November. Since that time the Mint have expedited matters, and have been delivering Badges at the rate of 100 a week, 700 out of the 800 we have applied for having been delivered. Only the last 100 Knights who did not apply until after July have not received their Badges, but in the course of the next fortnight every one of the members who has applied for the Badge will have received it.

The King's Message.

Before I sit down I also wish to inform you that I have received the following telegram from H.M. The King :—

“ Buckingham Palace.

“ The King greatly appreciates the greetings received from the Knights Bachelor of the Empire, now assembled in London from all parts of the world ; and I am commanded to convey His Majesty's sincere thanks to all who joined in this expression of loyalty and devotion. It was with much satisfaction that the King granted the Insignia to the Knights, which happy event in their history they are celebrating to-night.

“ Stamfordham.

“ 2nd December, 1926.”

(Cheers.)

Fini coronat opus !—But for the loyal and affectionate help I have received at all times from the Council we could never have carried this thing through.

Brother Knights, once more I thank you sincerely, gratefully and humbly for the kind way in which you received the toast. (Cheers.)

“ OUR GUESTS.”

COMMANDER SIR TREVOR DAWSON, Kt., Bt., R.N. (Vice-Principal), in proposing the toast of “ Our Guests,” said : It is a very great honour and pleasure to me to propose the health of our distinguished guests here to-night. I am very sorry that the Home Secretary, Sir William Joynson-Hicks, was unable to attend, because I am sure you would all have been pleased to see him at the Dinner and to thank him for the great service he has rendered to our Degree. However, we have, as always, some very distinguished guests present. The Home Office is represented by Mr. Eagleston, Mr. Boyd and Mr. Wells, all of whom we welcome very heartily. We thank our friends at the Home Office for the great kindness they have shown to us at all times in connection with the Insignia. We also have present to-night the Deputy Master and Comptroller of the Mint, Colonel Johnson. We wish to thank him for the great work he has done for us in producing the beautiful Badge that we now have the honour of wearing. We also have present from the College at Arms Mr. Wollaston, Richmond Herald, and Captain Butler, M.C., Portcullis Pursuivant, and we are deeply sorry that Garter King of Arms is not here as well. We should have welcomed him most heartily, with the other representatives of that great institution, if he had been able to attend. I would also like to remind the Knights present that Sir William Joynson-Hicks was the tenth Home Secretary whom we asked to put forward the Insignia for His Majesty's approval, and he said that he was very pleased to advise His Majesty to grant us this great privilege. Brother Knights, I ask you to drink the good health of our distinguished Guests, and I couple the toast with the name of Colonel Johnson. (Cheers.)

The toast was enthusiastically honoured.

COLONEL R. A. JOHNSON, C.B.E., in responding, said : It was with considerable trepidation that I made up my mind to accept the courteous invitation extended to me to-night. Some months ago, when discussing the delivery of the Badge, Sir William Bull asked me to produce it before the summer vacation. I told him then that it was quite impossible, but I promised him most faithfully that 500 Badges, which comprised the first order, should be delivered on the 1st November. About September, or a little earlier, I received a letter from him asking me how the Badges were getting on : would there be any delay, because he had to make arrangements for the Dinner, and so on. I wrote back in my most dignified official manner, and told him that what the Mint promised the Mint would perform. Well, Gentlemen, we did not perform it. (Laughter.) I think it is only fair to you and to me to tell you exactly what happened.

THE DELAY IN DELIVERY.

I do not know whether you are aware of the fact that the Mint do not do their own enamelling and gilding. So far as we were concerned at the Mint, in the production of this Badge, our business was to see, by His Majesty's command, that a really first-class artist was employed to design it, that the die from which the Badge was struck was a faithful reproduction of this design, and that the Badge itself was properly struck from it. So far as gilding and enamelling are concerned, the Mint have always been in the habit of going to the trade. Well, we went, as usual, to a firm that we considered to be in the first rank amongst enamellers.

UNEXPECTED DIFFICULTIES.

We gave them some sample pieces of silver to try the enamelling on, and at first no difficulties occurred. The firm were perfectly satisfied that all was correct, so I went away to fish in Austria. When I got back I found that of the first 100 Badges delivered in the month of September, no less than 80 had the enamel cracked. My people were in despair, and did not know what on earth to do. The man to whom we had sent the enamel work could not understand it. We tried and tried again, and still these cracked pieces kept on appearing.

When I got back we made inquiries of a great many other firms, and finally we tried two firms, who managed to do the trick. It now appears that red enamel will not easily go on to silver that has afterwards to be gilded. Directly you try to gild the tendency is for the enamel to crack. I have no doubt that certain branches of the enamelling trade knew that, but the firm that we went to first of all did not. They had not done red work before ; they had done white and blue and green, but not red. It was rather by way of chance that, in trying a good many other firms, we came across one which said, " Oh, yes, the difficulty is with regard to red. In order to get the proper effect you must put a green enamel on first and a red on top of that." There was also a rather curious point regarding the composition of the silver for this Badge.

THE SILVER USED.

We used, what we always use at the Mint, what is known as standard silver, i.e., an alloy composed of 925 parts of silver to 75 parts of copper, of which our silver coins were made up to 1920, but, alas, no longer. It now appears that in order to get good silver for enamelling and subsequent gilding the 75 per cent. of alloying metal should contain just a trace of something else besides copper. In the enamelling work we had had done before on silver there had been no difficulty, but in these cases there had been no subsequent gilding. This difficulty, however, would not have seriously hindered production, because there would have been only one or two failures per cent., but we have since gone to a firm which supplies a special silver for enamelling and subsequent gilding, and most of your Badges are now made of that silver. That was the position into which we were thrown, and it was not until the beginning of October that we fully realised what had happened. It threw us back a month, but yesterday I had the pleasure of sending round to Sir William Bull's office the 720th Badge. So that although I really feel that I should stand in a white sheet before you, I hope you will realise the difficulties we have had to encounter, and further that we have, subject to that month's delay, more than kept our promise. I came here, as I expected, to see the members of the Council around me, with considerable trepidation, not only on that account, but on account of the various criticisms which have been made about the Badge itself. I am afraid that Mr. Eagleston, Mr. Boyd and myself rather feared that if we attended here to-night we should be met by a number of infuriated Knights who had not received their Insignia, and that we should have put to the proof in our own persons the truth of the old adage—

" A true Knight am I, Anger me and try."

Instead of that we come here and find that you are all " parfit gentil Knyghtes."

THE KING APPROVES OF THE BADGE.

As regards the criticisms which have been made about the Badge, Sir Frederick Ponsonby, who was the Chairman of the Committee which went into the matter, tells me that H.M. The King, who has seen the Badge, thinks that on the whole it is a very worthy production, and that under the difficult circumstances nothing better could have been devised. He also reminded me that, in his long experience of these things, whenever anything new is produced, people say, "What a beastly thing!" In particular, when the Royal Victoria Order was introduced with a star different from other stars, a great many people said, "It is a beastly thing; I cannot possibly wear it; it is absurd and preposterous." But, as we all know, a Knighthood of the Royal Victorian Order is now one of the prizes in the honours world. That was a consolation to me. I have another consolation to offer.

THE LOVING CUP.

I have been discussing with my neighbour here, who is a real expert in these matters, what happens when a loving cup is passed round at a banquet. I asked, "Is it passed round from right to left, or from left to right?" and I have the high authority of Sir Vansittart Bowater for saying that it should pass as the sun goes, from left to right. When, therefore, you get into company—and I have often been in such company—where the loving cup is passed from right to left, you will appreciate the importance of having a good substantial protection on the left side, because in company where they do not observe these proper formalities, it is sometimes difficult, if not impossible, after a good dinner, for your neighbour on the left to stand up and protect you from the dirk of the man who is next to one from you. But in your new Badge you have a good substantial protection, if not over the heart, as near the heart as may be.

THE SIZE.

I may further add, as regards the size of the Badge, that it is the same size as the Star of the Knights of the Garter, which is the largest of all Stars; and I have been observing to-night that, where the Badge is worn with a Star, it looks quite in proportion to the Star. I am sure that there would have been a great complaint in regard to this Society, and justifiable complaint, if the Badge had looked insignificant beside the Badge of other Orders of Knighthood.

THE SPURS.

Another criticism I have heard is that the rowels of the Spurs do not run right, that one could not ride a horse with spurs with rowels so adjusted. I may say that that point was brought to the notice of our artist. In these artistic matters you must choose a good man and you must give him a free hand. The King's Advisory Committee of the Mint always choose a man; they may criticise his work, but they do not insist on his altering it. You get into great difficulties if you insist on an alteration in the face of your artist's opinion.

THE ASHANTI MEDAL.

Queen Victoria, of blessed memory, spoilt a very excellent war medal which was done in the classical style in commemoration of the Ashanti Campaign. Queen Victoria objected to the medal because she said she was quite certain that the British soldiers who fought in Ashanti wore breeches. (Laughter.) Therefore breeches had to be put on to the classical heroes portrayed on the medal, and the medal was entirely spoiled.

We went to our artist and said, "The rowels of these spurs are set on in the wrong direction." He said, "I considered that, but as an artist I assure you that is my conception of the thing. I have availed myself of my right of artistic license." To-night we have heard a further consolation from Sir Philip Magnus, who is most learned on all these subjects. Sir Philip has reminded us, after all his researches into history, that nowadays it is not only not necessary for a Knight to ride a horse, but that in general he more often rides in a motor car. (Laughter.) Gentlemen, imagine the danger to your tyres of wearing spurs with the rowels in the right position. (Laughter.) It is true that, with the rowels of the spurs in the position in which they are designed on the Badge, you would not have much success with your horse, but you must remember also that you would cause no injury to your tyres. (Laughter.)

HOW THE BADGE SHOULD BE WORN.

I have nothing else to say except that I find there has been great anxiety about the wearing of this Badge. I have had a good many anxious inquiries as to how the beastly thing was to be worn. (Laughter.) It is true that there is a sword depicted upon the front of the Badge itself. But that sword is firmly fixed into its scabbard. Hence, though the age of Chivalry is by no means dead, there is no danger that "ten thousands swords will leap from the irascabards" so far as your Badges are concerned. (Laughter.) It is the age of peace. But will the Badge itself leap from the coat? (Laughter.) The fixture of the Badge is exactly the same as the fixture of the Stars of the other Orders of Knighthood, but a good many Knights do not seem to understand that the only way to keep the Badge right is to have a couple of loops made on to the coat. It was only a day or two ago that a Knight's lady rang me up in despair, because she said her husband was going to be at a banquet and she could not get the Badge to fit on the coat. We told her exactly what to do, and she informed us the next morning that she was most grateful, because she and her daughter between them had managed to put the thing right. (Laughter.) I think I may be so bold as to say, on behalf of the Mint, that we give a guarantee that even to-night, when we all rise from this bountiful table, and from its flow of wit and of wine, none of the Badges will leap from their wearers. (Laughter.) Nevertheless as an official I must be cautious, and I cannot go so far as to guarantee that during the progress of this evening, when the meat and the drink have been so excellent, some of you so obviously and so naturally elated Knights may not have leapt clear of their badges. (Laughter.) If they have, indeed, done so, it is their responsibility, not ours. On behalf of the Guests present, amongst whom I must include the officials of the Heralds College who have done so much to get you the appropriate Insignia, I thank you very much. (Cheers.)

“ MEMBERS OVERSEAS.”

SIR PARK GOFF, K.C., M.P., in proposing the toast of “ Members Overseas,” said : Principal, Vice-Principal and Brother Knights,— I now have the honour and the privilege of giving you the toast of Members Overseas. I am credibly informed that the great art in after-dinner speaking is if you do not strike oil in the first minute, then cease boring. (Laughter.) I have no fear on that ground to-night, when I propose the toast of our Brother Knights Overseas. They belong to that great league of the British Commonwealth of Nations, with that long road of milestones of freedom which began with Magna Charta. That document was the birth song of a new nation, born of English blood, nourished on English ideals, brought up and educated on English tradition, and in days to come, wedded to all those great territorial outposts, which is to-day the British Empire. The observatory at Greenwich is the point from which distance is measured, east and west, throughout our Empire and the whole world around. The old abbey at Westminster is the shrine, not only of a nation, but also of a race, which has sent its adventurous and eager sons and daughters to every corner of the globe. At St. Stephens’s, the Mother of Parliament winds its way down through the centuries, marking in stately fashion the steady progress of free Government and the freedom of Mankind, and carries its beneficent rule of law and justice into every country and every clime. Civilisation hangs by the silken thread of goodwill among men. Commerce and trade may make enemies, or make friends, according as they are carried on in one spirit or another. Good will within a nation, and good will among nations, constitute the foundation of order and peaceful progress. It is mind that matters ; it is spirit that counts ; it is understanding that builds up ; it is ignorance that tears down. To those of us who have travelled the world over, we recognise and appreciate that we are only a little island in the North Sea, and are entirely dependent upon our great World Empire. Our Navy and our Mercantile Marine is the finest life insurance we possess. They form a chain of imperial unity which girdles the whole earth, every link of which rings true as steel. The loyalty and devotion of our overseas to the Motherland, is at once the envy and admiration of the whole civilised world. They realise that if the British Empire has a centre, it also has a circumference, and if the life blood flows from the heart to the extremities, it always flows back again from the extremities to the heart. We owe our very existence to-day to our brothers and sisters overseas. In their prosperity is our strength, in their contentment is our security, and in our gratitude is their best reward. We are all proud of what Burke was pleased to call That salutary prejudice called our country. I think we are happy in the name we have adopted, the "Imperial Society." It pre-supposes an Emperor and an Empire. We owe allegiance to the one, and are part and parcel of the other. Now at long last we have got the symbolic emblem of Imperial Chivalry with the right to bear arms. Two knights were once discussing their lineage, and one said that his family had been entitled to bear arms for 200 years, and the other replied that his ancestors had been entitled to bare legs for 2,000 years. (Laughter.) I have to couple with this toast the name of my old friend, Sir John Foster Fraser, who is a great Imperialist, and as members of this Imperial Society we stand for that real, true and pure Imperialism, that Imperialism which is exalted, but not arrogant, fearless but not rash, which is becoming less and less the creed of any individual party in the State, and more and more the faith of a great united nation. (Cheers.)

SIR JOHN FOSTER FRASER, in responding, said : Brother Knights—I think there should be a slight addition to this toast. Instead of it being only to Members Overseas, it should also be to Members beyond the Border. I do not come from the Dominions : I come, as all Scotsmen know, from the more intellectual end of Great Britain. (Laughter.) I have, however, personally to thank my old friend, Sir Park Goff, for giving me that most admirable advertisement about being an Imperialist. It has been my good fortune to have been in all parts of the Empire. So I suppose it is because I am a traveller that I am called upon to reply on behalf of our Brother Knights, not only who belong to other parts of the Empire, but who live in other parts of the world, foreign countries, and who, unfortunately, are not here to-night. We here are proud of being Knights Bachelor, but we must agree that the men who live in the Dominions, and I may say more particularly the men who hold the same rank as we hold, and who are maintaining the honour and dignity of our country in foreign lands, deserve not only our esteem but our admiration. I regret, as we all regret, that there are many people not here to-night.

KING ARTHUR.

I regret that our old friend who started the Order, King Arthur, cannot look down upon us. (Laughter.) If he could—and we have had recent testimony that these things happen—he would be particularly gratified to find the descendants of his Knights at the Round Table are engaged in such a jollification at this hotel, in the classical region of Piccadilly. (Laughter.)

KNIGHTS' DUTIES.

We know our tasks are innumerable. We have to defend the right, and guard shingled and other maidens. (Laughter.) Although the stories of the Thousand and One Nights entertained us in our youth, I am certain they are not half so amusing as those which could be provided by a couple of hundred Knights assembled here to-night. (Laughter.) We are proud to wear this glorious Insignia.

REPUBLICS.

I am glad to have it, especially glad because I am in the habit of visiting Republican countries. There is no country which has a greater admiration for decorations than the United States. (Laughter.) I remember speaking, away out in the Middle West, and a friend of mine who had charge of the meeting told me that on the morning of the meeting a small boy came to him and said, "Who's this British guy who's going to talk to us to-night?" My friend explained that the British guy was really a very important person, indeed, that he was a Knight. The boy said, "Gee, how do they make a Knight?"

HOW KNIGHTS ARE MADE.

My friend explained to the boy, giving away the secret, that in England a man who was supposed, or at any rate, alleged, to have done something for his country, was called into the presence of his Sovereign, knelt down, and the King took a sword, hit him on the shoulder and said "Rise, Sir Isaac"—(laughter)—and he became a Knight. "Oh, gee," said the boy, "that's nothing. There was an Indian Chief who once placed a hatchet on my grandfather's head and made him an Angel." (Laughter.) We know that whilst most countries grant decorations to their citizens, the Orders that are given to the people of our country, coming from the fountain of all honour, the Sovereign, are the most precious Orders that are given anywhere in the world. (Hear, hear.) Yet we look round here at each other, and we wonder how the deuce So-and-So got it. (Loud laughter.) Anyway, there is one point on which we can all agree, that we each individually are deserving of the honour. (Laughter and Cheers.) Our's is not the only land that gives distinguished Orders.

OTHER ORDERS.

A very great friend of mine used to live in Constantinople. She told me that when she was out there there was a certain lady attached to the Embassy who was a great favourite of the late Sultan of Turkey, Abdul Hamid. She used to dine sometimes at the Yildiz

Kioak. The Sultan was so impressed with her, and so charmed with her manner, that one evening he told her that he proposed to confer on her the only Order there was in Turkey which was ever given to women. Hitherto the recipients had been confined to ladies of the Royal Household, but on this occasion he proposed to confer the famous Turkish Order of Chastity upon this lady. (Laughter.) She returned to the diplomatic quarter of Constantinople and put on a considerable amount of airs amongst the other ladies of the Embassies because of this peculiar distinction which was about to be conferred upon her. At last the Lord Chamberlain and other high officials called upon her as the representatives of the Sultan, and presented her with the Order of Chastity, second class. (Prolonged laughter.) One of our great statesmen once said in regard to a recipient of the Order of the Garter, that there was no damned question of merit about it. (Laughter.) We know, however, that in regard to the high Order of Knighthood to which we belong there is a great deal of distinction. Speaking just for a moment on behalf of our Overseas Brother Knights, I wish to say that we appreciate very much what has been done by Sir William Bull in getting us this Insignia. I am sure those who are gathered round this hospitable board have decided to maintain the honour of our Knighthood, and yet nowhere in the world will you find men so zealous in maintaining that Order of Chivalry, the oldest Order of Chivalry in the world, that of Knighthood, than our friends beyond the Seas. (Loud cheers.)

(The proceedings then terminated.)

ONE HUNDRED KNIGHTS.

At a meeting of the Council held in 1924 it was decided to compile a list of 100 of the most distinguished Members of our Degree. I here report the result of their deliberations.

The Council will be glad to receive any alterations and suggestions, as they wish the list to be as perfect as possible.
